

American Cancer Society Relay For Life National Team Program Fact Sheet United States Junior Chamber (Jaycees)

Team Recruitment Information

Chapter locations/Contacts: The United States Junior Chamber (Jaycees) has 622 chapters across the United States. A complete list of chapters by state is located on the Jaycees Web site at usjaycees.org. You are welcome to contact the chapter contact to talk about their participation in the American Cancer Society Relay For Life National Team Program.

Things to bring on team recruitment visits:

- National Team Program promotional flier
- Team captain packet
- Kickoff invitation
- Team captain meeting schedule
- Relay poster(s)
- Relay brochure(s)
- Organization-specific flier (Visit RelayForLife.org/NONCTP for more information)

National volunteer leader: Each organization has a designated national volunteer leader. Please refer recruited team captains or internal questions from organizations regarding this partnership to the Jaycees volunteer leader, at 09usjc4acs@gmail.com. If the chapter contact is not familiar with the partnership, have them contact their state president.

Tracking teams: For tracking purposes, team captains should be encouraged to use "Jaycees" and their two-letter state abbreviation in their team name and the affiliation box when registering their team online. Each chapter is also encouraged to send their involvement stats (teams, funds raised, and committee involvement) to their state president for internal tracking.

American Cancer Society staff should contact local Jaycees offices to discuss volunteer opportunities within the Society. The American Cancer Society Web site for team registration is RelayForLife.org/relay/findevent. This Web site connects directly to the local American Cancer Society community Web site for information.

General Company Information
